

CastleHaven

6 Lana Close Kings Park NSW

3 2 1

This neat single level home has everything to accommodate for entertaining this summer with a beautifully covered alfresco area and fully decked sitting area at the side of the property with lush gardens welcoming you from the front to the backyard. There is also a gate that connects you with the council reserve, which has a play area for kids.

The property has three bedrooms all with built-ins, master with renovated ensuite. You will appreciate the two separate living and dining areas. The home is positioned on a 568msq and includes a single lock up garage with drive through access into the backyard. The location is great, handy to the M7 and within walking distance to transport, shops and schools.

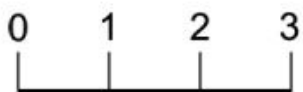

Stop paying rent and secure this great family home that you can move straight into, with nothing to be done. It's one not to be missed.
