Federation features offer a special warmth and charm that whisper "welcome" and "home" the minute you enter a property that bears their mark. This delightfully maintained Provincial Home is no exception and you'll find the lovely street appeal carries through the recently repainted home's interior where attention to detail and loving maintenance is evident.

Set on an elevated 790sqm block in a quiet cul-de-sac within the Kings Road estate, this home has ample outdoor space with not only a double garage but also gated side access for the boat or caravan enthusiast and a covered pergola.

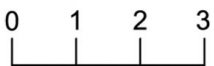

Such conveniences are a plus to any home but the real strength is under the main roof where a timeless timber kitchen with one year old appliances including dishwasher and microwave, five bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and of course a master bedroom with built -in robe and ensuite
