This state of the art, never before lived in home boasts the latest in excellent designer features and a quiet location opposite a stunning bush reserve. Spread across two storeys the home is both commanding and welcoming as you enter off a landscaped yard and pass the stunning stack stone feature pillar, into the foyer with its gleaming porcelain tiles and soaring ceilings.

The home then opens out into a series of stunning open living areas with family and rumpus rooms flowing off the gourmet kitchen which includes polyurethane cabinetry, stone benchtops, scullery pantry with sink, Smeg appliances and gas cooktop. Leading off this area are floor to ceiling stacker doors which open up to make a seamless transition into the sunny rear yard and its huge alfresco area.

Beautifully finished, the alfresco area has two ceiling fans and kitchenette with sink to ensure entertaining and indoor
