Come and inspect, the ultimate in construction and entertainment value, with this architect designed masterpiece. This home is 55 squares in size and located in a quiet cul-de-sac and has been built on an extremely rare 820msq block of land. As we enter the elegant foyer, we find the sunken formal lounge and dining, the 5th bedroom with bathroom access, that can also double as a home office/study. Then comes the 'WOW factor' as we enter the massive open-plan casual living areas, which includes meals, family room and rumpus/home cinema. The focal point Caesar stone kitchen, with all the best stainless steel appliance and huge walk-in pantry. Upstairs we find 4 more big bedrooms all with walk in robes, plus a 9m x 6m rumpus for the kids entertainment needs. Outdoors, the alfresco area could seat up to 80 people for a function, and with the bi-fold doors, we can combine the indoors with the outdoors for the perfect summer BBQ or
