You'll always know where the kids are - playing in the reserve backing on to this substantial family home. An elegant, architect designed, American inspired residence with everything the most discerning home buyer could want. Cost has been ignored to make this stately home one of the smartest in the area. Not only is it fitted with every imaginable inclusion, but the craftsman builder has ensured every minute detail is finished to perfection. Boasting a formal yet inviting lounge with soaring ceilings, separate dining room, spacious family room and divine rumpus room with genuine open fireplace. There's four bedrooms, a study with built-in shelving, den/hobby/library room and an upstairs gallery. All the bedrooms are huge and include built-in wardrobes. The principal suite is enormous and is replete with ensuite bathroom, walk-in robe and a balcony with a beautiful outlook. The dream kitchen with 900mm gas cook top and electric under bench
