New to the market, we offer this superb opportunity for a young couple, buying their first home or the street wise investor who can smell a bargain. Set on a near 700msq block, high side location with wide side access, this home offers four bedrooms, all with built-in robes, including a large master with ensuite bathroom. The formal and casual living areas are complimented by timber floors, with the focal point being the stylish gourmet kitchen with walk-in pantry. Outdoors, we find an alfresco entertaining patio and a good sized backyard for the kids. Added extras include alarm, split system reverse cycle air-conditioning, new guttering all around and is within walking distance to schools, transport and shops, yet situated in a quiet, tree-lined avenue.
