

CastleHaven

The Ponds

Where could the privileged family be more appropriately accommodated than in this incredible refined, brand new residence that exudes quality from top to toe. Situated in a quiet tree-lined avenue 500m from John Palmer School and proposed shops with permanent reserve & a playground at the end of the street. High ceilings, porcelain tiles. Multiple open plan living areas spread out to provide an array of versatile havens, four generous bedrooms plus three ultra modern bathrooms. The white polyurethane gourmet kitchen with Caesarstone splash backs is the core of the home and boasts a 900mm free standing professional oven and cook top plus ducted rangehood. This complete package residence features an expansive outdoor entertainment area with levelled easy care garden and maximum privacy.
