Ideally positioned and impeccably maintained, this is a property not to be overlooked. Whether you're seeking somewhere to live within close proximity to the centre of Castle Hill, or for a great investment in a traditional blue-ribbon location, this property ticks all the boxes.

Set in a whisper quiet crescent on a near-level 701.9msq block, this home is characterised by solid timber flooring throughout and old-world charm with its ceiling roses, chair rails and traditional touches.

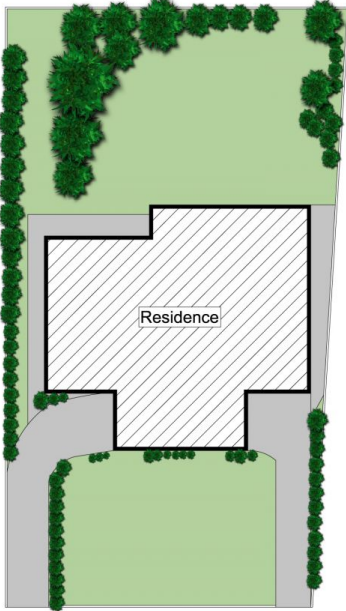

Family and guests are likely to linger in the impressive lounge/dining room, which interconnects well with the updated kitchen with stainless-steel appliances, part granite benchtops and a lovely servery come breakfast bar. The synergy in this home is highly evident.
